

MONOLOGUE PART 2

I got real shakey because I knew it was me.

I went back to my room and my mum comes in and asks if I'm alright. I lied to her because I was so scared.

I wanted to tell her the truth but I couldn't.

I wanted to tell someone what I'd done.

Why didn't the guy just see the rock and drive round it?

He could've driven around it.

They said on the TV he was dead.

MONOLOGUE PART 3

I couldn't sleep.

Kept looking at the clock.

I thought I gotta go to sleep, and try and be normal.

The next morning I was trying to be really normal.

Mum said I could stay at home.

I said I was feeling alright and I forced myself to eat breakfast, like a normal kid, and then go to school.

Then I thought the police might be there waiting for me.

MONOLOGUE PART 4

I rode my bike halfway to school and got off near the river.

I cried.

I couldn't help it because I didn't know what to do.

I knew I couldn't be normal anymore.

I thought about running away.

I was at that spot by the river a long time.

I got on my bike.

I went home and told mum, she looked at me, she didn't move much, she kept just looking and being real still.
