Principal Update

10th November 2023

Week 9

- 1 new member of staff in the academy a massive welcome to Ms Hartley who will be Mrs Millar's PA
- 100 Year 11 Careers interviews completed
- 5 Remembrance assemblies thank you to Mr Higgins for delivering such a poignant message to us all
- 1 collective habit certificate awarded to the whole of Year 11 for demonstrating supreme self-control during the mock exams
- 1 beautiful rainbow spotted over the academy
- 1 amazing win for our Year 7 football team who beat Bradford Forster Academy 7-2! Well done team!
- 448 students with 100% attendance this half term – keep going!

Why is it important	What it looks like	What it sounds like
Being honest shows that you can take responsibility for your actions which is a	Students always doing the right thing.	"I am sorry Miss/Sir for my actions."
valued skill for life that earns respect.	Students owning their actions without argument.	"I need help with" "I did not do that, but I
Honesty gains trust from the people around you and	Earning the trust of your teachers and peers.	know who did, it was"
builds reputation.	Being reliable and trustworthy.	"Thank you for being honest, I appreciate it."

